The petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus to declare the inaction of the respondents 1 and 2 in not considering the complaint, dated 10.07.2007, as illegal and arbitrary.

It is the case of the petitioner that he is the owner of the land in an extent of 200 square yards situated in Sy.No.41 at Navrang Guda Khalsa village, Uppal madnal, Ranga Reddy District bounded by North – Ram Reddy, South – Land belonging to Laxma Reddy, East – School and house of Narayana and West – House of Anand and another.

It is stated that when the 3rd respondent interfered with the peaceful possession and enjoyment, the petitioner filed the suit O.S.No.1079 of 2006 on the file of the Additional Junior Civil Judge, Ranga Reddy District for grant of perpetual injunction and the said suit was decreed by judgment, dated 17.01.2007 granting perpetual injunction restraining the third respondent from interfering with the petitioner's possession over the suit schedule property. It is stated that even after the said decree which was passed against the third respondent, and no appeal has been filed by the third respondent against the said judgment, the third respondent started interfering with the possession of the petitioner over the suit property and therefore, the petitioner made a representation before the second respondent on 10.07.2007 and the copy of which was also filed before the first respondent. But, the respondents have not taken any action to extend necessary police protection and to take action against the said third respondent.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the second respondent is directed to consider and dispose of the said representation with regard to the request of the petitioner for providing protection to his property by passing appropriate order and intimating the same to the petitioner within (10) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
